Qualification procedure for taking part in International Junior Science Olympiad:

- International Olympiad foundation is the official representative of International Junior Science Olympiad (IJSO) in UAE.
- Students who wish to represent UAE in International Junior Science Olympiad (IJSO) must qualify through Science Olympiad Qualifier.
- The official website of International Olympiad Foundation is www.olympiads.org

Rules:

1- You must qualify the science Preliminary Olympiad qualifier that will be conducted in September-October. The Preliminary Olympiad qualifier is Multiple choice question test. It will consist of 10 questions each from Physics, Chemistry & Biology. The Preliminary Olympiad qualifier can be taken in UAE in all the Emirates (Dubai, Sharjah, Abu Dhabi, Ajman, Ras Al Khaimah, Umm Al Quwwain and Fujairah).

2- If shortlisted in Preliminary Olympiad qualifier, you must appear for final qualifier to be held in November-December. The final Olympiad qualifier is objective test consisting of 45 questions from Physics, Chemistry & Biology. The final Olympiad qualifier can be taken in UAE in all the Emirates (Dubai, Sharjah, Abu Dhabi, Ajman, Ras Al Khaimah, Umm Al Quwwain and Fujairah).

3- You must not be older than 15 years as on 31-December of the competition year.

4- International Olympiad foundation will shortlist the students based on the qualifiers for IJSO.

5- Students from senior grades will be given preference over junior grades. The preference from high to low for selection will be as Grade/Year 11, Grade/Year 10, Grade/Year 9 and so on.

How to register?

- You can add your email ID to the notifications of the website www.olympiads.org.
- Kindly keep track of the website (www.olympiads.org) for update about registration for qualifier exams.
- There are Olympiad centers available all over UAE (Dubai, Sharjah, Abu Dhabi, Ajman, Ras Al Khaimah, Umm Al Quwwain and Fujairah) and you can choose the most convenient center at the time of registration (Al Khaimah, Umm Al Quwwain and Fujairah) and you can choose the most convenient center at the time of registration.

You can find more details about the International Junior Science Olympiad 2019 from: